Breaking Nova 1 Jessica Sorensen

This was my first Jessica Sorensen book and I can honestly say it won't be my last. Wow, she sure is an author who can make me feel deeply about the characters in her books. Breaking Nova I found to be a very heavy read, and by the end I was emotionally drained. I am for sure going to have to take a break in between this first book and The second.

Breaking Nova is a depressing story of facing grief and forgiving. The scenes are vivid in their darkness. Jessica Sorensen has a talent for creating a physical setting that feels as much a character as the people in the story. Her words impacted my senses where as a reader I felt I could smell, feel and see the story as I read through the pages.

As usual, Jessica Sorensen writes an absolutely compelling novel. She is fast becoming one of my favourite authors. This story is nothing less than fantastic but it feels like it finishes in the middle of the story. Now I have to wait 5 months to read the conclusion. That is why I can't give it 5 stars.
